Corns Peel Right Off With "Gets-It"

2 Drops, and the Corn is a "Goner!"

When you've got to walk on the sides of your shoe to get away from those awful corn-pains, there's only one common-sense thing to do.

Use "Gets-It" Your Corns Won't Swell in Water. Besides, They'll Shrink, Loosen and Peel Off!

Put 2 or 3 drops of "Gets-It" on the corn right away. Pain and inflammation will disappear, the corn will begin to shrivel from that instant—then it loosens and falls right off.

There's no other corn-remover in the world that acts like "Gets-It." No new discovery has been made in corn-removers since "Gets-It" was born. Don't forget that fact. "Gets-It" goes away forever with the use of salves that irritate, bandages that make a bundle of your toe, plasters that half do the work, knives and scissors that draw blood. Use "Gets-It"—no more digging or cutting.

"Gets-It" is sold everywhere. See a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

trip to Norfolk, Va., and other points. She has many friends who hope for her speedy recovery.

Jackson, Ky., Jan. 4.—Tilden Blanton, son of former County Judge W. H. Blanton, has been indicted on the charge of assaulting Col. Ryland C. Musick, local attorney here. Blanton is a brother of Grover Blanton, who was killed in an election affray in August, 1915, by Elihu Allen.

Col. Musick was chief counsel for Allen through four trials, the first of which was held in Breathitt county and resulted in a life sentence. The case was appealed and reversed and sent to Clark-co., where three trials were held, the last in December, when Allen was acquitted.

Wiley Miller, Delbert Prater, Morton Miller and Henry Miller were indicted in connection with the murder of John Spurlock, near Quicksand, a month ago. Spurlock was driving home in a wagon when he was shot from ambush.

The Breathitt Circuit Court has been in session since Monday, the first three days being consumed in the trial of Robert Forbes, charged with the killing of Hannibal Hurst on New Year's eve, 1915. The State rested its case Wednesday night and the defense will probably consume two days in presenting evidence.
